

Reverse the Order of Your Day

Do your shopping in the morning and leave your other duties until the afternoon. We recommend this, because then our stocks are fresh and well filled, and we can give you more individual attention. Particularly is this true right now before Christmas. However, you may be assured of our painstaking attention here at any hour of the day, so far as is possible.

Saturday Special

Regardless of the advance in the price of Silks, we are placing on sale Saturday morning two lots of All Pure Silk Shawls, both Black and White, suitable for neck and headwear.

$1.69 value, Special Saturday $1.15
$2.25 and $2.50 val., Special Saturday 1.69
Also one lot of All Linen Hand-Made Cluny Lace Doilies, Stand Covers, etc.

Values up to $4.00—Special, $1.98
No more obtainable at present

Suits and Coats

You should see our special Suit values at $10.95—Suits that are worth from $18.00 to $22.50, going at this ridiculously low price for quick selling. These are the very latest in Suits, made of the newest materials, in the popular colors. A few better Suits at quick selling prices.

We have several odd numbers in Coats that we are selling much under price. A chance to buy a good Suit or Coat cheap.

Let your gifts be good, practical ones—something that is useful as well as ornamental—something that will be appreciated and used long after it is received. We have prepared for you a really splendid assortment of practical holiday gifts.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Gold beads and lockets at Holmes'. R. S. Currier, county supervisor of highways, has returned from Worcester, Mass., where he attended a meeting of the International Road Builders' congress. Robert Wright of Seminary street and Delos Merlo returned to the city last evening from Washington, where they have been passing a week at the Polenta farm.

Mrs. George Aiken and two sons, who have been visiting in Barre and East Barre for a few weeks, were visitors in the city this morning while on their way home to Stowe.

Rehearsal at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for all departments of the Sunday school. Last rehearsal before the service on Sunday evening. Let everyone be present.

Mrs. W. J. LeBaron and daughter, Miss Kathleen LeBaron, who have been passing a few days in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miles of South Main street, have returned to their home in Waterbury Center.

Several employees of the Vermont Telephone & Telegraph company from this city will go to Montpelier to-night, where they will attend the meeting of the Vermont chapter of the Telephone & Telegraph society, which is to be held at the Pavilion hotel in that city. Among the Homer Hayden of the Montpelier road, who has been seriously ill of typhoid fever for several weeks, has so far recovered his health as to be able to be in the city on business to-day. Mr. Hayden expects to resume his duties with the Vermont Tel. & Tel. Co. within a few days.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: L. A. Wiedner of Dunkirk, N. Y., a retail monument dealer, who is staying at Hotel Barre while passing several days in the Barre granite belt; H. H. Hickok, I. L. Thomas and W. Angers of Burlington, Miss F. Hamond of Westport, N. Y., J. G. Anderson of Hartland, L. B. Reilly and W. P. Leffler of Burlington, John S. White of Philadelphia, D. A. Sturtevant of Rockport, Mass., A. M. Bucklin of Canaan, N. H., D. C. Slater of Essex Junction, William D. Hall of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald of Manchester, E. J. Eisten of Cleveland, O., George L. Johnson of Amherst, Mass., H. S. Ramsay of Claremont, N. H., G. C. Carpenter of Winooski and John D. Woods of Middlebury.

Mrs. James Robertson is in receipt of a letter from relatives in Aberdeen, Scotland, advising her of the death of her nephew, James Walker, a member of the 4th Gordon Highlanders, who was killed in an engagement at Ypres recently. Enclosed in the communication to Mrs. Robertson is a fine tribute in verse to the memory of the officers and men of the Gordon who fell in the hour of victory Sept. 25. Included, too, in the letter is a facsimile of the field service postcard used by the soldiers in the trenches in writing home. Many of the relatives of the dead soldier mentioned are fighting for England and while lamenting the early death of Mr. Walker, the letter bespeaks a note of pride that he died bravely.

A novel method of transportation has been adopted by the Vermont Trucking company in transferring the machinery from the Whitcomb Bros. plant at North Barre to the Montpelier & Wells River freight yard, where it has been consigned to the Manufacturing & Supply company in Boston. In freighting some the 30-foot screw lathes through North Main street, the company's employees equipped each machine with a long set of wooden speakers will be: F. W. Storey, assistant vice-president; L. N. Whitney, general commercial superintendent; B. J. Bowen, general traffic superintendent, and G. H. Dresser, general plant superintendent. A social hour will be spent and an orchestra will be in attendance.

runners and then attached the outfit to one of the motor tractors. Very few obstacles were encountered in making the distance to the freight yard and the contracting company figures that a good deal of time was saved. The wooden runners are not to be detached, as the purchasing company hopes to unload the consignment in Boston and transport it to its warehouse in the same way.
